

Zoom* Bingo

Have fun on your next video conference call!

Step 1: Make sure everyone on your call has a Zoom bingo card ready to go.

Step 2: Pay attention and mark off your squares.

Step 3: Yell BINGO (make sure to unmute first) if you can get 5 in a row :)

Is it wine o'clock yet?	Someone needs to go on mute.	I'm a terrible homeschool teacher.	Pants are optional, right?	I'm wearing pajama bottoms.
This is a crazy time, right?	My dog loves me being home!	Zoom is so much better than a phone call.	Look, I'm flying through space.	[cat jumps into view]
We're running low on t.p.	Excuse my messy house.		[bark bark bark]	I haven't left the house in days.
[muffled scolding of a child or other household member]	It's just my allergies.	Nice background!	OOPS! Someone is accidentally sharing their screen.	I can't get my video to work.
Zoom is a good excuse to get dressed or do my hair	[hearing someone use the toilet/flush]	I haven't showered today.	Upgraded from the free account in the last month	[child, spouse or dog interrupts participant]
